AMERICAN COINS

159 Massachusetts. 1652. Shilling. Small planchet; v. good and scarce.

160 Louis XIV. 1670. Gloriam Regni ½ crown for American possessions. Very fine and rare.

In their catalogue of Dec. 15–16 sale, Messrs. Chapman give eleven lines to a description of one of these coins, reminding collectors, as a proof of its great rarity, that in their March '81 sale one sold for $18. They omit the two beautiful specimens in Hon. Geo. M. Parsons's collection, sold Oct. 16, 1880, for $10 50 each, and several other instances of sales at equally low prices. Is it not time for compilers of catalogues who sincerely desire to convey correct information to abstain from quoting the high prices obtained in very exceptional past instances?

161 Satirical medal against John Law. Crowned figure of Folly with child's rattle; REDDITE REGNALIA DET. Rentiers below. Rev. Shield surmounted by a cat-like animal (suggestive of wild-cat banks), supported by two mountebanks; LUNA DUCE AUSPICE MOMO. Bronze; v. fine and rare. 28.

181 CENTS. 1795. Jefferson head. Fine impression for this very rare type, but many small cuts on obv., not touching either head, legend, or date, and a few on rev. Cost $10.00.

182 1797 Varieties; both v. good. 2 pcs

183 1803 and '10. Very good. 2 pcs

184 1809 Slightly corroded, but v. good; scarce.

185 1823 over '22. Very fine impression, sharp and perfectly uncirculated. The obverse is of uniform reddish color, the reverse olive, with small rust spots not in the least marring the piece, as they can easily be removed—but I prefer to sell as found by a collector behind a chimney-board some ten years ago. Equal to the finest specimen of this date ever sold.

186 1833 Very fine.

COLLECTION OF MASONIC MEDALS.

This small but fine collection was lately received by me from France, to be sold at private or public sale. Having decided to place it in this catalogue, I trust that the occasion will not pass unnoticed by American collectors of Masonic medals, to whom the opportunity is now offered of adding, at their own prices, fine and rare specimens, several not described by Mr. W. T. R. Marvin, to whose work references are made in every instance, when possible. Every medal is either strictly uncirculated or proof.

1.00 434 Alexandria. 1856. Sphynx between columns, All-seeing eye above; insc. on rev. Bronze. 29. M 49.

435 Batavia, India. 1844. 75 on star of 5 points and inscr. Silver. 32. M 493.

436 Belgium. 1842. Bust of Eugene Defacqz, G. M. Rev. Altar and Masonic implements. Silver. 32. M 108.

437 — 1869. Bust in high relief of Pierre Van Humbeeck, G. M. Rev. Inscription descriptive of his Masonic career. Silver. 40. M 496.

438 Bordeaux. Loge Anglaise, 294, founded 1782. Arms guarded by lion and radiant triangle. Bronze. 18. M 72.

439 Berlin. 1838. Centennial of initiation of Frederic, crown prince. Bust l. over radiant sun and Masonic altar. Silver. 26. M 302.

440 — Lodge of Three Globes. 1824. Bust of De Guionneau and Masonic altar. Bronze. 27. M 359.

441 Brunswick. Figure of Harpocrates and triangle held by a hand above over rough ashlars. Silver. 25. M 374.

442 England. 1802. Accolated busts of George, Prince of Wales (George IV), and William, Duke of Clarence. Rev. Two oval tablets; inscriptions, etc. Very elaborate and highly finished bronze medal, fully described by Marvin, 262. Size 27.

445 Halberstadt. 1846. Semi-centennial of the Lodge of Three Gavels. Shields under eagle. Rev. Unfinished column. Bronze. 23. M 392.

446 Hamburg. (1737.) Rising sun and moon shining upon the earth from different directions; FACIES SUPREMI EADEM. Rev. Shield bearing the arms of Hamburg, surrounded by Masonic tools. Silver; only very good. 19. See M page 296, note on 9, with whose description this medal does not entirely agree.

447 — St. George Lodge. 1743. Perfect ashlar under compasses, and monogram in radiant sun. Silver. 18. M 11.

448 — 1778. Bust of Gottfried Jacob Jaenisch, M. D. and G. M., in whose honor this medal was struck. Rev. Inscr. in wreath. Silver. 22. M 110.

449 — Centennial of St. George Lodge, 1743. FIDELITER, SILENTER FERVENTER EMPOR, etc. Rev. Blazing star and inscr. Silver. 23. M 113.

3.00 450 Leyden. Loge de la Vertu. 1807. Woman kneeling at an altar, behind which stands Death, buildings in the background. Rev. Elegiac couplets of nine lines. Elaborate silver medal in honor of Louis Napoleon, "the beneficent king," etc. Loop, oval. 24x29. M 212.

3.50 451 Lille. Loge des Amis Réunis. Masonic altar, in front of which is a book inscribed BIBLIA SACRA; many Masonic emblems around it. Rev. Three wreaths interlaced by a ribbon inscribed DEVOUEMENT, COURAGE, HUMANITE. Copper, silver-plated. 32. M 254.

3.00 451*a*— Loge Amis Réunis. Inscr. in quadrate cipher. Three youths clasping each other's hands. Rev. Square and compasses over radiant triangle, around which the engraved inscr., "Les A.·. R.·. au F.·. Petit-Villette, 5819. Silver, loop soldered to edge. 18. M 650.

Marvin had not seen this when his work was issued. He informs me the cypher gives name and location of the Lodge.

1.00 452 Louviers. Loge des Arts et l'Amitié. 1805. Pillar surrounded by bust and various objects. Rev. Female at burning Masonic altar. Milled edge; silver. 18. M 29.

.50 454 Netherlands. Medal struck in 1825 by the G. L. in honor of the marriage of G. M. Frederic to Louisa of Prussia. Figure of Latomia and radiant triangle; insc. in quadrate cypher. Bronze. 29. M 27.

4.00 455 — Medal struck by G. L. in honor of the 25th anniversary of the marriage of Frederic and Louisa, 1850. Accolated busts and inscr. in triangle. Silver. 37. M 203.

.50 456 — 1841. Bust of William Frederic r. Rev. Grand Master's ribbon and jewel. 25th anniversary as G. M. Bronze. 33. M 24.

6.00 457 — Latomia, a gavel and plumb at her feet, crowns the bust of William III, placed on column, against which rest the square and compasses, and a shield inscribed 1849–1874; radiant triangle above. Rev. (Dutch) "The Order of Freemasons in the Kingdom of the Netherlands, her Colonies and lands, in remembrance of the 25th anniversary of the reign of King William III, 12 May." Silver. 32. This medal, though of recent origin, is of excessive rarity. Marvin knew nothing of its existence.

458 Nancy. Mastiff on stone over anchor and trident surrounded by radiant circles. Rev. Two columns on platform entwined with ribbon and rising sun. ARRET above; in exergue, L. C. D. S. E. A. S. DE N. A. L'AN 1745. "Central Lodge of Mopses, founded at Nancy," etc. Bronze. 16. M 425. One of the oldest and rarest medals connected with Freemasonry.

See Marvin's note on this piece, which perhaps should be assigned to Nuremburg.

459 Paris. Loge St. Antoine du Parfait Contentement. 1785. Masonic altar between sprig of acacia and branch of olive, sun and moon above. Rev. Candidate for Masonic degree, hoodwinked, led by arm above, through a rocky path to the Temple of Light. Silver; milled edge. 20. M 55.
